Purpose of this insurance

In summary, this insurance provides two types of cover:

- Section 1 Material damage – provides cover to covered persons for certain physical loss of or damage to specified insured property under the insured contract. There are a number of Additional benefits available or automatically provided;
- Section 2 Third party liability – provides cover for certain amounts covered persons may be liable to pay compensation for to a third party for certain personal injury or property damage.

To properly understand the cover provided You need to carefully read:

- about each of the two covers in Sections 1 and 2. We set out the cover provided and the specific exclusions and conditions that apply to each cover (the cover provided under each Section can be affected by the following);
- the rest of this "Introduction", which sets out how You apply for cover, the basis on which We insure You, the Duty of Disclosure You need to meet before We insure You, our privacy information and our dispute resolution procedures;
- the "General definitions applicable to all Sections", which sets out what We mean by certain words used in the insurance. Except where noted otherwise, these words begin with a capital letter throughout this document. Each cover Section also contains Definitions relevant to that Section;
- the "General exclusions" that apply to all covers;
- the "General conditions" that apply to all covers. If You do not meet these conditions We may be able to refuse to pay You or may reduce what We pay for a claim to the extent permitted by law; and
- the Schedule and any endorsements or other written changes to the standard cover We issue to You, which contain specific details relevant to You.

Please read the above carefully to ensure this insurance provides You with the protection You need.

Basis on which We insure You

Where We agree to insure You, We do so:

- based on the information provided in Your proposal and/or statement of answers and/or submission and subject to payment of the required premium by the required date;
- subject to the Sum Insured or Limit of Liability stated in the Schedule in respect of those Sections, or the relevant Section Additional benefit(s) shown as operative;
- in accordance with the Policy terms and conditions – Your Policy is made up of this Policy Document, the Schedule and any Endorsements or other document issued by us in writing to amend the standard terms of cover.

You should carefully read all of these as if they are one document and keep them in a safe place.

We only cover the interests of persons specified as entitled to cover in the Policy and only to the extent specified.

If You require further information about the Policy or wish to confirm a transaction, please refer to the contact details provided on the back cover.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into a contract of insurance with Us, You have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to Us every matter that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to Our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to Us before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate the contract.

This duty of disclosure applies until the contract is entered into (or renewed, extended, varied or reinstated as applicable).

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by Us; or
- that is of common knowledge; or
- that We know or, in the ordinary course of Our business as an insurer, ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with Your duty is waived by Us.

Non-disclosure

If You fail to comply with Your duty of disclosure, We may be entitled to reduce Our liability under the contract in respect of a claim, cancel the contract or both.

If Your non-disclosure is fraudulent, We may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

GST notice

This Policy has a GST provision in relation to premium and Our payment to You for claims. It may have an impact on how You determine the amount of insurance You need. Please read it carefully. Seek professional advice if You have any queries about GST and Your insurance.

Sums insured

All monetary limits in this Policy may be increased for GST in some circumstances (see below).

Claim settlements – Where We agree to pay

When We calculate the amount We will pay You, We will have regard to the items below:

- where You are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to Your claim (such as services to repair a damaged item insured under the Policy) We will pay for the GST amount. We will pay the GST amount in addition to the Sum Insured/Limit of Liability or other limits shown in the Policy or in the Schedule. If Your Sum Insured/Limit of Liability is not sufficient to cover Your loss, We will only pay the GST amount that relates to Our settlement of Your claim.

We will reduce the GST amount We pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which You are or would be entitled;

- where We make a payment under this Policy as compensation instead of payment for a relevant acquisition, We will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any input tax credit that You would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to a relevant acquisition.

Disclosure – Input Tax Credit entitlement

If You register, or are registered, for GST You are required to tell Us Your entitlement to an input tax credit on Your premium. If You fail to disclose or understate Your entitlement, You may be liable for GST on a claim We may pay. This Policy does not cover You for this GST liability, or for any fine, penalty or charge for which You may be liable.

Terrorism Insurance Act

We have determined that this Policy (or part of it) is a Policy to which the Terrorism Insurance Act 2003 applies. We have reinsured Our liability under the Act with the Commonwealth Government reinsurer, the Australian Reinsurance Pool Corporation (ARPC). As a consequence, We are required to pay a premium to ARPC and that amount (together with the cost of that part of the cover provided by Us and administrative costs associated with the legislation) is reflected in the premium charged to You. As with any other part of Our premium, it is subject to government taxes and charges such as GST, Stamp Duty and where applicable, Fire Service Levy.

For further information contact Allianz or Your intermediary.

General definitions applicable to all Sections of this Policy

Except where stated otherwise within a particular Section of this Policy, for the purpose of this Policy the following definitions apply.

“Allowable Categories” are Contract Works of a type specified in the Schedule as an allowable category.

“Business” means the business described in the Schedule, carried on by You or on Your behalf and any trade or occupation carried on by You incidental to that business.

“Contract Construction Period” means the construction period specified in the Insured Contract.

“Contract Site” means the contract site anywhere within the area stated in the Schedule (but always within the Commonwealth of Australia), where the Contracts Works are carried out, and in respect of materials, whilst stored on adjacent property.

“Contract Works” means the whole of the works described in the Insured Contract as required for the performance of the Insured Contract, whether permanent or temporary, including principal supplied or free-issue materials, temporary buildings, scaffolding, hoardings, formwork or falsework or materials incorporated or to be incorporated, therein. The works includes new works or additions and alterations to or refurbishment of pre-existing buildings or structures, all of which form part of the Insured Contract.

The Contract Works does not include pre-existing Property, Construction Plant and Machinery or Tools of Trade. Cover for such items can be obtained if requested and agreed to by Us for an additional premium.

“Deductible” means either the amount of money specified in the Schedule or stated in the Policy for each applicable Section or type of loss as specified, that You must contribute as the first payment for all claims arising out of one event or Occurrence.

“Insured Construction Period” means, for each Insured Contract, the period starting on the date of possession of each Contract Site by the contractor, or the commencement date of the Contract Works at the Contract Site, whichever is the later and ending at the earlier of:

1. the time of practical completion of the Contract Works, being when the Contract Works are complete except for minor omissions and minor defects which do not prevent the Contract Works from being reasonably capable of being used for their intended purpose; or
2. with respect to any portion of the Contract Works, the time it is taken over or put into use (whichever is the earlier) by the purchaser or principal; or
3. the expiry of the Maximum Construction Period; or

1. does not have an estimated final contract value (including the sub contracts or sub agreements) that exceeds the Contracts Works Sum Insured at its commencement;
2. is of a contract type within the Allowable Categories; and
3. which does not have an Insured Construction Period greater than the Maximum Construction Period at its commencement.

However:

1. If the Schedule states this Policy is on a “Contracts Commenced” basis, it only covers such contracts or agreements that first commence during the Period of Insurance.
2. If the Schedule states this Policy is on a “Transfer” basis, it only covers such contracts or agreements that first commence during the Period of Insurance and those still within their Contract Construction Period or Maintenance Period (as the case may be) immediately prior to the start of the Period of Insurance.

For the purposes of any Sum Insured/Limit of Liability under this Policy, the Named Insured’s contract or agreement and the sub-contracts or sub-agreements referred to above are treated as one Insured Contract.

“Turnover” means the total value of all work performed (including all materials, components and principal supplied items) on Insured Contracts:

- if this Policy is on a “Contracts Commenced” basis – during the Period of Insurance applicable to these Insured Contracts;

Clauses b) and c) only apply to the extent to which the costs claimed had to be borne by You and to the extent to which they are included in the Total Sum Insured for this Section 1.

Where We have agreed to pay a claim under this Section 1. and the claim settlement amount has been agreed by Us, if Our total liability of such claim is estimated to exceed $50,000, after the application of any deductible, We will pay at Your request progress payments for the claim, provided that the amounts and intervals of such progress payments are agreed by Us.

All damage which can be repaired must be repaired.

We will not be liable to make any payment under this Policy unless You have paid the required premium and produced to Our reasonable satisfaction, accounts, invoices, receipts and other documentation indicating that repairs have been effected or replacement has taken place, as the case may be.

We will not pay for:

- a) the cost of any provisional repairs unless such repairs constitute part of the final repairs and do not increase the total repair cost;
- b) the cost of any alterations, additions and/or improvements.

Application of Deductible

The amount of the Deductible will be subtracted from the amount payable by Us for each event giving rise to a claim under this Section. If a claim arises from a single event and You can obtain cover under more than one benefit in this Section, You will only be required to pay the highest single Deductible applicable regardless of the number of Deductibles applying to this Section.

If the claim is for legal liability, You may make a written request to Us to agree that You are covered in respect of the claim.

2. Contact Us as soon as possible

If there is any loss, damage or liability which is likely to result in a claim, You must give Us immediate notice with the full details of any loss, damage or anticipated or alleged liability.

You or Your representative must give Us full details in the manner We request which will be either verbally or in writing by completing Our claim form which will be supplied to You when You contact Us. The process for authorising repairs is explained under "Authorising repairs and settlement".

If no inspection is carried out by or on our behalf within a reasonable time having regard to the location of the risk, weather conditions and any other relevant factors, You may proceed with such repairs or make good.
